

Membership of Bogong Ski Club is divided into 2 categories.

Full members ...

are limited in number and prospective members must apply to the committee through the secretary.

Prospective members must be nominated and seconded by existing members and fees are payable.

Full members enjoy first booking rights, access to the limited storage facilities in the lodge, full access to the Club website and the right to participate in club administration and activities.

Limited members ...

... are admitted to membership on an annual basis.

Membership Information

Last Updated Monday, 01 April 2013 07:27

Their rights are limited to accommodation in the lodge.

Limited Members must be nominated by a club member.

This type of membership is generally administered by the booking officer.

Annual fees and booking fees are paid by all members.